Israel's assault on Gaza, January 2009.

What's next in the stalled quest for peace between Palestinians and Israelis? Will it be war? A negotiated peace? Continued occupation? What's changed in the two years since the war on Gaza and nine months since the Gaza Freedom Flotilla fiasco? What can we expect and what actions can we take? What is the state of relations between Turkey and Israel today? What can progressives do to support better relations between Israelis/Jews and Palestinians/Arabs who seek a shared future? What does U.S. foreign policy hold for the near future in the region?

Richard A. Falk and Jeff Halper will address these questions and more.

Dr. Richard A. Falk (to left) is Princeton professor of international law emeritus. He has been the United Nations Special Rapporteur on Human Rights in the Palestinian Territories.

Halper(to right) is an American anthropologist who immigrated to Israel in 1973. He is the coordinating director and founder of the Israeli Committee Against House Demolitions (ICAHD).

A $100/plate donor dinner with Richard Falk and Jeff Halper at the Iman Center will follow the forum. Get details at <http://www.lajewsforpeace.org/talks/ImanCenterDinner.pdf>

This event is presented within Progressive Conversations on Israel, Palestine and U.S. Foreign Policy in the Middle East, the new monthly lecture series, organized by LA Jews for Peace and the Levantine Cultural Center. It is also cosponsored by Jewish Voice for Peace, Friends of Sabeel LA & OC, Middle East Fellowship of SCAL, Shura Council of Southern California, Muslims for progressive Values, and Progressive Democrats of America – LA.
